GRISWOLD URGES POLITICAL UNITY IN GREEK CRISIS

U. S. Administrator
Cites Party Merger
As Aid Plan 'Must'

ATHENS, Aug. 25 (AP)—Dwight P. Griswold, administrator of the United States aid program, visited Themistokles Sophoulis at his suburban home in Kiphissia tonight and stressed the need for political unity if the American mission is going to succeed, an authoritative source said.

The source said no "pressure" was put on Sophoulis, 86-year-old leader of the main branch of the Greek Liberal party, who steadfastly has refused to join a coalition government under Premier-designate Constantinos Tsaldaris, chosen by King Paul to form a new cabinet after the government of Premier Demetrios Maximos fell the past Saturday.

Griswold urged Sophoulis to aid in achieving some sort of solution to Tsaldaris' problem in order to expedite the mission's work, the source said. His visit came as Tsaldaris appeared determined in his efforts to bring Liberal party representation into a new cabinet.

Sophoulis indicated, the source said, that he was willing that Tsaldaris' Populist party should receive most of the cabinet appointments if he would be named premier.

Some political circles said such an attitude expressed openly by Sophoulis might result in the union of the two parties in a coalition cabinet. It is known that Tsaldaris would be reluctant to surrender the premiership, but it was pointed out that he previously had offered Sophoulis the presidency of the ministerial council while he held the top post. These circles said Tsaldaris might agree to reverse the two posts.

Sophoulis was said to have told Griswold that he was the only person in Greece whose name and influence could persuade a majority of Greek guerrillas to surrender under amnesty terms.

Both Tsaldaris and Sophoulis were scheduled to consult tomorrow with U. S. Ambassador Lincoln MacVeagh. Although both appointments were set for 11 a. m., it was not known whether the political opponents would face each other.

Prior to Griswold's visit, Tsaldaris' choice appeared to be narrow. (Continued on Page Five)

Priest Is Beheaded By Yugoslav Mob; Second Is Wounded

TRIESTE, Aug. 25 (AP)—The Allied military government was informed today that a Catholic priest had been beheaded by a Yugoslav mob and seriously wounded a priest from the Vatican during a Sunday confirmation service in a village near Pleso, 30 miles southwest of Trieste in Yugoslavia-occupied Venezia Giulia.

An AMG officer said that Msgr. Antonio Santini, bishop of Trieste and Capodistria, identified the assailants as Yugoslavs.

The dead priest was the Rev. Miro Bulesich, and the wounded priest was the Rev. Giacomo Ukmar.

The Italian language newspaper La Voce Libera in Trieste said the mutilated body of a third priest who had been missing for a week was found in a woods. He was identified as Father Kristian, parish priest of Tolazzo in Istria. The body bore marks of "horrible torture," the newspaper said.

La Voce Libera said Father Bulesich was attacked by men wielding sickles and was "literally slaughtered," while Msgr. Ukmar, tarred down and trampled, suffered a skull fracture and kidney wounds.

The attack occurred at Lantische, near Pleso. Msgr. Ukmar was taken to a Pleso hospital in critical condition by an Italian Red Cross ambulance sent to the scene from Trieste. Yugoslav officials refused to permit the ambulance to take the injured priest to Trieste, the newspaper said.

The newspaper reported that a band of men armed with hoes, picks, shovels and sickles attempted to break into the church while a confirmation ceremony was in progress, but was repulsed by a crowd guarding the door.

After 250 children had received the sacrament, Msgr. Ukmar, Father Bulesich, and another priest withdrew to the sacristy, where the attack occurred, the account said.

Fighting to Save Life of Kerosene Fire Victim

While blood plasma and oxygen are administered for shock, Mrs. Russell A. Boykiw (rear) and C. H. Swartz treat the badly burned body of six-year-old Eleanor Wentzel, 575 Howard street, Stowe, in the emergency ward of Pottstown hospital. Seventy-five percent of the girl's skin was burned when her kerosene soaked clothing burst into flame as she was attempting to ignite a can of the oil. Miss O. Long (left) and Mrs. K. Maier, nurses on the hospital staff, assist the two doctors. She was in a "very serious" condition last night, Dr. Boykiw said.

JET SETS NEW SPEED RECORD

Navy Skymaster Hits
652 MPH, Bettering
Own Mark at Murco

MURCO, Calif., Aug. 25 (AP)—The Navy's jet-propelled Douglas Sky-streak boosted its own world air speed record to 652.6 miles an hour today.

Marine Maj. Marion Carl, of Hubbard, Ore., and Patuxent River, Md., piloted the tiny, scarlet plane four times over the three-kilometer course at the Army air base here, where only last Wednesday the same plane set a mark of 640.7 miles an hour.

It required several hours to calibrate instruments and arrive at the new record speed.

The plane hit its top speed on the first run, which was clocked at 652.642 MPH. The second run was figured at 649.358 MPH. The third run came up again slightly with wind, to 652.579. On the final run, against the wind, the time was 648.730.

Cmdr. Turner P. Caldwell Jr., of Arlington, Va., who last week set a new record of 640.7 miles an hour in the same plane, witnessed the flight.

"I believe you broke her," Commander Caldwell told the major. The Navy permitted newsmen to watch today's flight, but you had to look mighty sharp to see anything. The plane flashed at terrific speed across the 1.86 mile course, trailing a long plume of black smoke.

The plane seemed absolutely silent as it passed the observers, located midway on the course. The sound trailed the ship by several hundred yards, and it was far away before its thundering exhaust could be heard.

Child Beater Gets Nine-Month Term

George Goodwin, 9 Riverside avenue, Kenilworth, was sent to the Chester county prison for nine months yesterday by Judge Ernest Harvey in West Chester county court after he pleaded guilty to the charge that he beat his five-year-old stepson, Wayne Goodwin.

Goodwin was arrested by Daniel W. Guidin, North Coventry township police officer, on July 31 after neighbors complained that the man had beat the child.

At a hearing before Justice of the Peace Ralph W. Ralston, North Coventry, Goodwin was remanded to the Chester county jail after he was unable to raise $500 bail.

The child was sent to the Juvenile Home in West Chester. Authorities said that he would not be returned to his parents.

Life Moves at Languid Pace As Heat Hangs Into Night

By FRED SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Pottstonians were still trying to figure new ways to beat the heat last night, still complaining, still wondering would it ever end.

But with all the perspiring sighs for Winter's return, there were wistful gleams in their eyes as they watched the last week of August go steaming past.

In the twilight a group of young boys walked up High street, carrying bats and balls from a late game. They tugged at their soaked T-shirts, fanned themselves in elaborate imitation of grownups, and stopped walking. They glanced at the window of a clothing store; a haunted look came into their eyes.

"The school bell will ring sooner than you think," said the sign. Clutching their money for the air-conditioned movie, the gang raced away into the Summer night.

Around a High street restaurant booth sat a knot of men, sharing the fellowship that comes from being stranded together while the wife and kids are at the store. Two of them were involved in the old argument about whether you should drink hot coffee to start the body's refrigerator going, or iced coffee to turn off the furnace.

Two more were devouring a sea food dinner.

"Wife won't let me eat lobster," said one. "Says they'll make me fat."

"So's mine," said the other. "Still," continued the first, "in this heat, what else are you going to eat?" And the pair returned happily to the claws and butter sauce.

A little later, two attractive brunets walked into another restaurant and perched jauntily at a table. They told each other they would never, ever go out again on a hot night like this, and they

MERCURY GOES UP TO 92 HERE

Mark Is Second Highest
This Summer; Relief
Forecast for Tomorrow

Pottstonians bore the brunt of what was almost a Summer's record for heat yesterday as the mercury unashamedly crept up to the 92 mark.

It was evident among residents that Old Sol believed in the scorched-earth policy and was attempting to remind us that even if he has been burning it, and us, year after year.

As a matter of fact, yesterday's 92 was only 5 degrees short of breaking an all-time record of 97, on August 25, 1939. And it was only one degree away from the hottest day this Summer when the thermometers registered 93 here on Aug. 13.

IT'S NOT THE HEAT, IT'S THE HOSTILITY

Don't Get Hot at the Heat --- Fretting Can Make You Sick

Last January you hoped for warmer days. You'd trade this for 90 in the shade.

HEAT got you down? Feel sort of sick to your stomach?

It's not the heat but the hostility causing a growing number of nausea cases in the current torrid weather. Dr. Hayden Evans, High street physician, said yesterday.

People near the breaking point, he pointed out, are giving the weather a dressing down to the detriment of their health and well-being.

"They are turning heat into a mental obsession which may interfere with proper secretion of gastric juices and bring on attacks of indigestion," Dr. Evans declared.

Fretting and fuming at the heat is not only an unsound psychological procedure but a physiological one as well, Dr. Evans explained.

"It tends to augment and magnify the suffering," he said.

"The body's metabolism rate is stepped up and more heat is produced."

The best way to keep cool is to keep calm, other doctors agreed.

One physician suggested that the short tempers were growing out of inability of people to get a good night's sleep.

Dr. Evans remarked that one enemy of sound sleeping is a small bed.

THERAPY CENTER TO BE OPENED

County Crippled Patients
To Receive Treatment
Here Starting on Oct. 1

A new center of physical therapy, will open Oct. 1 in the Pottstown YWCA building, 315 King street. Its facilities will be available without charge to residents of Montgomery county.

This announcement was made yesterday by officers of the Philadelphia Society for Crippled Children and Adults, sponsors of the therapy work in the county. They said the center will replace the old system of home treatment and will enable many more people of the area to be treated.

Staffing the new center will be Mildred Hollenbach and Mrs. Clarissa Murray, two physical therapists trained by Dr. Winthrop Phelps, chief of the Children's Rehabilitation Institute, Cockeysville, Md.

The center will be located in the gymnasium of the YWCA and will be open every Wednesday afternoon, beginning Oct. 1, from 2 to 5 o'clock. Treatment will be available to any county victim of a crippling disease or accident, upon recommendation of a physician or accredited social agency.

The therapy can be given without charge, the society said, since its funds are raised through the annual sale of Easter Seals to the public.

Since more county residents can be taken care of under the new set-up, the society invited the making of new referrals to its headquarters at 20th street and South College avenue, Philadelphia.

Arrangements for bringing the center to Pottstown were made by Mrs. Alex V. Tisdale, Cherry Lane farm, YWCA secretary, and Leona V. Smith, Sanatoga, public health nurse.

Sears, Swinehart Attend Sewage Disposal Parley

GIRL PLAYING NEAR OIL CAN, STRIKES MATCH

Eleanor Wentzel Is Victim
Of Accident as Brother
Tears Off Blazing Clothes

A six-year-old girl, 75 percent of her skin burned by searing kerosene flames, lay in a critical condition in Pottstown hospital last night.

She is Eleanor Wentzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Wentzel, 575 Howard street, Stowe.

The youngster was burned when her kerosene soaked clothing burst into flame when she attempted to light a can full of the liquid. Despite the efforts of her 13-year-old brother, Donald, who ripped her flaming dress from her body, the child suffered first, second and third degree burns of her abdomen, back, arms and legs.

The accident occurred shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon while Eleanor was playing in the field behind her house. The field is used as a dump and the little girl apparently found an old tin can full of kerosene among the rubbish.

While carrying it across the rough ground to a cleared area behind the row of houses on Howard street, some of the oil spilled over the front of her dress.

She called her friend, Barbara Ozenford, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Ozenford, 569 Howard street, and the two girls went back to the can of oil. According to Barbara, Eleanor obtained three books of matches from a young neighbor who found them either among the litter of the dump or took them from the house, and attempted to light the can of kerosene.

As she struck the match, the whole book flared up and the kerosene soaked front of her blue print cotton dress burst into flames. The youngster cried to Barbara to put

Man Says Charge Of Robbery Faked To Get Back $110

In a sudden about-face last night, Clarence Oister, Star Route, withdrew a charge of highway robbery he had made against Edward L. Neiman, Pottstown RD 2, Sunday evening.

Oister withdrew the charge in the course of a hearing before Justice of the Peace Ralph W. Ralston, North Coventry township. Ralston announced that the hearing would be continued until 8 p. m. Thursday "to give the officer a chance to make a further investigation."

Oister told Ralston that he had $110 in his pocket Saturday night, but after spending the entire night in a Glasgow quarry with a 15-year-old girl, he discovered the following morning that the money was gone.

Daniel W. Guidin, North Coventry township police officer, asked Oister, "What was your idea of having Neiman arrested?" Oister replied, "I could not find the money and I thought that I could get it back."

The Star Route man told Ralston that he believed that through the arrest of Neiman, his $110 would be recovered.

When the magistrate assured him that such was not the case, Oister reconsidered and withdrew his accusation.

According to Ralston, Neiman, a native and life-long resident of North Coventry, has a florist business. (Continued on Page Three)

Noted Blood Analyst Is Witness For Defense in Overell Trial

SANTA ANA, Calif., Aug. 25 (P)—An internationally-known expert on blood types disagreed sharply today with prosecutor witnesses over whether bloodstains on George Gollum's clothing could have come from financier Walter E. Overell.

The witness, Dr. P. B. Candelaria, testified as the defense finally launched efforts to refute prosecution murder accusations against Gollum and his girl friend, Louise, Overell's daughter, with a charge that the financier himself was preparing the dynamite charge which partially wrecked his 42-foot yacht.

Dr. Candelaria, of San Bernardino, was credited recently with the successful blood-typing of a 4000-year-old mummy. He identified Overell's blood, taken from the brain and from a bone marrow, as type A. Ray Finkler, veteran Los Angeles police chemist, testified for the State had classified it type O. Finkler also testified that stains on Gollum's trousers and a flight jacket were type O.

The physician agreed with Finkler, however, that Mrs. Overell's blood was type O.

Defense attorneys, in opening remarks to the jury, promised a parade of witnesses to dispute State claims that the two young colleagues slew the girl's father and mother.

"We will show," shouted S. B. Kaufman, chief counsel for George (Bud) Gollum, that the Overells were killed by a premature explosion caused by Mr. Overell himself.

The defense launched its case as the trial of Gollum and his girl friend, the Overell's 18-year-old heiress-daughter, Louise, went into its 14th week.

The state has charged that the "greed and frustration" of Gollum and the girl led them to kill her wealthy parents, but Otto Jacobs, who heads Louise's legal battery, declared:

"The only greed and frustration in this case is upon the part of the attorney, general's office, and for political reasons."

NATIONS DEFEAT ARGENTINE BID ON WAR ACTION

Two-Thirds Vote Necessary For Hemisphere Action Against Armed Aggression

QUITANDINHA, Brazil, Aug. 25 (P)—An all-nation committee of the Inter-American conference voted today an Argentine proposal requiring unanimous decisions in joint hemisphere action against armed aggression and adopted instead a two-thirds majority rule.

The committee on voting procedure kept the Argentine proposal from being incorporated in the hemisphere defense treaty, on which the conference now is working, by a vote of 16 to 1. Argentina cast the one affirmative vote and the representatives of three nations were not present.

A Uruguayan proposal calling for a simple majority vote to set all the American nations in action against an aggressor was defeated 16 to 1, with its sponsor casting the only "yes" ballot.

The committee adopted the two-thirds rule by 15 affirmative votes, with Argentina and Uruguay abstaining.

The vote on Argentina's proposal followed a plea of Hildebrando Acioli of Brazil for withdrawal of the proposal which, in effect, would have given any one of the 21 American nations the power to veto measures adopted by the others for combating aggression.

Enrique V. Corominas, who earlier had made an impassioned plea for adoption of his country's unanimity proposal, then assured the committee that Argentina would "abide by the will of the majority" of the committee.

Even though it was obvious that only Argentina would support the measure, committee chairman Luis Anderson Moura put the proposal to the vote, along with Uruguay's majority measure.

Midwest Corn Crop Loss Ended As Rain Soaks Parched Fields

CHICAGO, Aug. 25 (P)—Rains came to the parched corn fields of the midwest over the weekend and today, checking a 15 million bushel a day loss which corn has suffered since the start of this month.

Moisture broke the drought throughout the main corn belt from Indiana to Nebraska, and it was accompanied by relief from the searing heat which had punished the corn crop since July. Parts of the northwest and southwest grain territory also received rain.

Iowa and eastern Nebraska obtained the most moisture. Scattered showers brought relief to parts of Indiana, Minnesota and South Dakota. Rains in Illinois were too localized to do much good.

Corn prices on the Chicago board of trade reacted to the rain by inching sharply. Final quotations on corn for future delivery were off eight cents, the limit admitted in one session, September $2.38 1/2, a bushel. Cash prices dropped several cents.

Widespread rains in Nebraska ranged up to 2.25 inches at David City. Heaviest precipitation was in eastern Nebraska, the corn producing territory of that state, out crop authorities were cautious in sizing up benefits.

Communists Assail U. S. Policy in China

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25 (P)—The Chinese Communist radio today violently attacked the Wedemeyer mission and American policy in China, charging that the United States had obtained a series of military bases covering all of China and the island of Formosa to fit into an American "program of expansion and aggression."

The broadcast, datelined "North Shensi" and heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press, alleged, without any supporting evidence, that the United States had obtained bases at Taipei and Keelung on Formosa, had been promised another base on Formosa for naval and air use, mainland bases at Tsingtao, Tientsin, Lanchow, Tientsin, Sian (Sinking) and Chengtu.

GREAT BRITAIN HOLDS SECOND CRISIS MEETING

Special Session Called. On New Rigid Program; Parliament May Convene

LONDON, Aug. 25 (P)—Britain's cabinet today held its second "crisis" meeting in eight days to draft a new austerity program expected to be announced later this week by Prime Minister Attlee.

Attlee and other ministers interrupted their vacations for the four-hour meeting, which reliable informants said was called to discuss emergency plans for curtailed food rations, increased hours for miners and reactions to Britain's sudden sterling "freeze" last week.

Silent cabinet ministers waved to crowds of curious spectators as they left No. 10 Downing street, but brushed aside questions about the meeting that brought top Labor party leaders together. There was speculation that Parliament might be called into special session.

The British Press association reported that a "new austerity plan" would be announced from the prime minister's office later this week. This was an apparent move to lay the crisis program before next week's annual convention of the trades unions congress, a powerful force in the ruling Labor party.

Presence of Food Minister John Strachey at the cabinet meeting was seen as an indication that the new food rationing program would be made known shortly. Strachey does not hold formal cabinet rank and does not attend policy-making cabinet sessions unless food supplies are under discussion.

Government leaders, including Deputy Prime Minister Herbert Morrison and Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Dalton, have warned that some reduction in food supplies can be expected as a result of the decision to ban sterling convertibility into dollars.

Attlee flew to London from a vacation spot in North Wales for the meeting, and returned to his family by plane shortly after the emergency meeting.

FREED SOLDIERS SAY THEY WERE WELL TREATED

GI's Held in Korea Complain of Food; New U. S.-Red Problems Arise

SEOUL, Korea, Aug. 25 (P)—Three teen-age American soldiers freed after 12 days in Russian custody, said today they were well treated but were kept under tommy-gun guard and got such unappetizing meals that "we'll never gripe about GI chow again."

Their release followed two stiff protests from Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, commandant of the American zone of Southern Korea.

Soviet-American relations in Korea continued tense as Maj. Gen. Albert E. Brown joined Hodge in a sharp reply to Priddy's Russian accusation that "mass arrests" of leftist leaders in the American zone were impeding the work of the deadlocked joint commission on a Korean government.

Brown, chief of the American delegation on the commission, issued a statement declaring that the Russian charges were "pure fantasy" and "pure propaganda" intended to create "a more serious to obscure certain strategic blunders of the Soviet delegation."

Brown said the Russians were trying to defend the so-called "democratic peoples front of South Korea," which he described as a disloyal, subversive organization. He advised the Russians to "avoid entanglement in Korean politics, particularly in support of parties and organizations hostile to the United States."

Confirming that various arrests of minor figures had been made, Hodge said they were necessary to control "seditious activities."

Charles P. Skouras Receives Top Salary; Grable Tops Women

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (P)—The heavyweights corporation salary of 1945 went to theater financier Charles P. Skouras, the Treasury department reported tonight, while Betty Grable's $266,000 was the top figure among women.

Miss Grable's compensation from Twentieth Century-Fox didn't match the past year's earnings of actress Deanna Durbin, $310,728. However, the shapely Miss Grable's band-leading husband, Harry James, added $121,667 to the family income from the same payroll.

Skouras received $568,143.60 to lead the list of more than 800 persons who took more than $75,000 in pay from corporations in 1945 or in business fiscal years ending in 1946.

He nosed out another California entry—Charles H. Strub, executive vice-president of the Los Angeles Turf club, Inc., who earned $541,412.12—by pocketing $438,143.60 from National Theaters Amusement company, Inc., and the rest from Fox West Coast Agency corporation. Skouras is president of both firms.

Third money went to Thomas J. Watson, president of International Business Machines corporation, New York, $425,548.94.

Four Moslems Killed in New Delhi Clash

NEW DELHI, Aug. 25 (P)—Four persons were stabbed to death today in the first communal rioting to flare in New Delhi since Spring, while Hindu-Sikh and Moslem groups continued their bloody warfare in the Indian and Pakistan areas of the Punjab.

The riot in India's capital occurred at a club hall, where Hindu and Moslem workers clashed as a new exit was being built. All the fatalities were Moslems and seven others were injured, police said.

pretended to ignore the admiring glances from other customers that were at least partly due to the rich board of tan the girls had gained by frying themselves in oil under mid-afternoon suns.

A blue convertible trotted past the corner of King and Hanover streets for the fifth time. A young man glanced glumly over the shoulders of his girl friend into The Mercury office, apparently unhappy at finding in the heat another excuse to borrow his dad's new car.

And up on Mantawny street, couples were walking, hand in hand under the moonlight. The girls patted their foreheads delicately with their handkerchiefs, the boys shook their heads and pined at wilted collars. Both tried to look miserable. Neither succeeded.

The sound of men's laughter and sometimes a snatch of song came from the buildings that house Pottstown's various clubs. It wasn't quite 8 o'clock but the business sessions had already ended in general agreement that it was too hot for business, and the members had adjourned to the social rooms to complain of the weather.

Later in the night, many groups could be seen sitting on porches. The older folks were probably telling each other it was past their bedtime but, since you couldn't sleep anyway on a night like this, they might as well stay up and relive the old days.

And as it crept toward 11 o'clock, the younger set hid in the corners of some porch fronts, hoping no one would see them and end the privilege of staying up like grownups. And on other porches kids appeared from nowhere, having heard somebody say ice cream would be nice if somebody would go for it.

As it approached midnight High and Hanover streets were still half crowded with cars going back to Philadelphia after spending an evening in cool Montgomery county. And the knots of Summer bachelors were breaking up, to return one by one to empty houses and reread the postcard from the wife who wrote she was glad to escape Pottstown's dreadful heat.

A car rolled into a King street garage. In an adjoining office, great chunks of watermelon stood.

"Say what you want about the heat," said one of the melon eaters, "Winter's worse."

"Nuhh," said another as he buried his knife in a new piece, "Summer's bummer."

Layfield Road Work To Be Started in Early Fall, State Says

Work on the widening of the Layfield road from Swamp to Perkiomen Heights should start early this fall, possibly during the last week of September, D. C. Stackpole, district engineer of the State highway commission, said yesterday.

Stackpole said that survey crews would cover the signal more than six miles of road in need of improvement before the work is begun.

Plans for the widening of the road by the addition of three foot shoulders on each side have been approved and the department is getting materials together for the work, he said.

An emergency appropriation for the work was granted to Stackpole's office following direct action by William F. Lamb, president of the Pottstown Automobile club. Lamb sent letters to Governor James Duff and Ray F. Smock, secretary of highways, urging that action be taken on the project following the death of a 21-year-old Ochs, girl in an accident on the road.

Lamb described the ten-year fight to have the road widened and told the go error.

"We can't continue to save lives with promises," he declared.

Notification of the emergency appropriation reached Lamb through the county commissioners, Foster C. Hillebrand, Frederick C. Peters, and Raymond K. Mensen.

out the fire, but instead, the panic-stricken girl ran screaming for aid.

Shocked into immobility, Eleanor stood fixed while the flames made a torch of her body.

Hearing Barbara scream that Eleanor was on fire, Eleanor's brother, Donald, ran to her rescue. He tried to roll her over on the ground, the girl ripped her flaming clothing from her body.

Bis of charred cloth and the "smoke" can on the edge of a blackened circle of charred brown grass marked the spot where the youngster stood while her clothing burned.

A neighbor, Mrs. Rose Moser, 545 Howard street accompanied by her son, George, and Donald, swathed the girl's body in a towel and rushed her to the hospital.

The girl was in a severe state of shock on her arrival at the hospital where Drs. Russell A. Boylston and C. H. Swartz administered blood plasma and oxygen to the youngster while they treated her badly burned body.

She was kept under oxygen after her burns had been treated.

Dr. Boylston last night termed her correct on every serious case we have in the hospital right now," he declared.

One of six children, Eleanor was being cared for by her oldest sister. Just prior to the accident, she had been playing with a group of children under a hose in an effort to keep cool.

Both of her parents were working when the accident occurred, her father at the Doehler-Jarvis plant, and her mother, in the first day of a new position at a High street restaurant.

Vacationing With Mercury Readers

By The VACATION EDITOR

If current women's fashions had come into style while the bulk of our young manhood was still at war, something tells us that they wouldn't have been so anxious to return home to the fair sex.

Conservation of textile cloth during the emergency brought our taste in our women, and perhaps it even hastened the boys to win the war more quickly. But since the Armistice, fashions have gone to the coasts as date prices, labor settlements, and many wartime marriages.

At any rate, if you want to see how styles have moved from the sunbath to the racetrack, take a short vacation at the shore. For the most part, the boys look pretty nice, despite a cargo, collared jackets which look like glorified sacks after holes have been cut into them.

But the women... yow!

Off the shoulder blouses baggy skirts that are only a flea's nip from their ankles, paler flat shoes, long straight hair with atrocious bangs across their foreheads. They look like refugees from a Hungarian peasant farm. And all because of a few designers who can't leave liquor alone.

Nevada Falls, Lloyd, Star route, Yosemite Park said "Hello" to their friends from California. Having a wonderful trip. We're leaving San Francisco today for Canada. The weather is fine, not too warm through the day and cool in the evenings." Nevada falls, in Yosemite valley, is shown on their postcard.

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

WHEN death arms his scythe, pneumonia fever, it cuts a wide swath. For this disease leads all others in the killing of children and young adults. Alone, it causes five times as many deaths in this age group yearly as scarlet fever, diphtheria, measles, whooping cough, infantile paralysis do together.

Nor does it stop with children. It occurs at any age and veritable epidemics have been reported among young

During the war, for instance, more than 40,000 service men contracted the disease.

The aftermath of rheumatic fever, such as rheumatic heart disease and its complications here is shown by the fact that the leading cause of heart disease among young men between five and forty years of age is rheumatic heart disease.

As a general rule, rheumatic fever starts suddenly with fever, pain in the joints and swelling of the joints. Usually it starts from two to four weeks after a respiratory infection, such as a sore throat.

In some instances, the disorder on more gradually, and the symptoms may be quite mild with pains in the joints which are often called mistakenly "growing pains" for there are no such things as "growing pains". Studies have been carried out which seem to show that the heart is not damaged to some degree in almost all cases even after the infection clears up, and that permanent damage to the heart is present.

The exact cause of rheumatic fever is not known. However, it would appear that before the condition develops there is an infection with hemolytic streptococci germs. Epidemics of streptococcal infections in the army were fol-

It was also found that rheumatic fever occurred in some areas from one hundred times more often than in other areas. The regions of the country affected particularly are the Rocky Mountain area, the Mid-West, the area around the Great Lakes, and Newfoundland. The disorder apparently occurs frequently in warm climates. Food crowding, lack of sanitation and lack of adequate contributors.

Unfortunately, no single curative measure has been discovered recently after an attack develops. Sulfonamide drugs and penicillin are of little, if any, value.

The best treatment during an attack is complete rest, the use of the proper doses of penicillins, and the use of well-balanced diet.

Removal of the tonsils evidently has no particular value in preventing recurrence of the condition.

The giving of sulfonamide drugs, in the proper doses, which aid by passing off sore throat due to the streptococcal germ, may be of some value, although such treatment must always be carried out in the direction of a physician.

Fire Company Votes To Purchase Hose

The purchase of 500 feet of two and one-half inch hose was authorized at a monthly meeting of Royersford Humane Fire company last night.

The company also decided to inquire about hose hangers, which it is proposed to install in the hose tower. The trustees reported a new television set, ordered at the July meeting, would be installed in the firehouse Thursday.

Report of Capt. John Rosenberger, given by Robert Beideman, first lieutenant, listed two fires during the month. Aug. 1, at the Foxell farm, Black Rock, and Aug. 12, a silent alarm at the Reburn Tag company. Three new members were elected: William Randall, Richard Corbin and John McDermott.

Formal report was given of the recent election of Franklin Breideman as third lieutenant, and Clair Buckwalter as fire chief.

Two Unions File Taft-Hartley Affidavits

Stating Leaders Have No Communist Ties

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—Two unions engaged in lively organizational drives were the first to file affidavits with the National Labor Relations board today, stating their officers are not Communists.

The unions are the AFL-Office Employees International union and the Independent Communications Workers of America. Such affidavits are required by the Taft-Hartley labor act.

At the same time, the lines were being drawn for a court showdown in a case involving a union led by an avowed Communist.

The old NLRB handed down a decision the past Saturday, 24 hours before the Taft-Hartley labor act became fully effective, ordering reinstatement of eight members of the CIO-Far and Leather Workers fired by the Geraldine Novelty company at Gloversville, N.Y. Ben Gold, head of the union, makes no secret of his Communist party membership.

St. Andrew Schussberg, attorney for the novelty company, said in Gloversville that the firm will not comply with the order.

The Taft-Hartley law denies NLRB processes to unions which fail to file the non-Communist affidavits.

Miss K. Betty Zueno Becomes the Bride Of Edward J. Tiernan at Nuptial Mass

Miss K. Betty Zueno became the bride of Mr. Edward J. Tiernan Jr., yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, at a nuptial Mass in St. Aloysius Catholic church. The Rev. Thomas McCrossen performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Zueno, 618 Farmington avenue, and Mr. Tiernan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Tiernan Sr., South Pottstown.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Joseph Zueno, the bride looked lovely in her satin gown of colonial style. The fitted bodice featured a round neckline with a lace ruffle forming a square yoke and a full skirt with three large scallops which were fastened by seeds of pearls showing a lace petticoat. The sleeves were long and pointed at the wrists. Her fingertip veil fell from a turrel of seed of pearl and she carried a bouquet of white roses with a lavender orchid in the center. Pompons attached to white streamers fell from the bouquet.

As the bride knelt in prayer during the mass she held a crystal rosary which was a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Betty Petzer, maid of honor, wore a pink taffeta gown styled like that of the bride. She wore pink gloves and carried a hand bouquet of yellow carnations, gladioli and green fern.

The bridesmaids, Misses Beth Raup and Catherine Tiernan, sister of the bridegroom, were attired in light green taffeta gowns. The fitted bodice had a square neckline and small puffed sleeves. The full skirt had a bow in the back giving a bustle effect.

They carried hand bouquets of pink carnations, gladioli and fern. All the attendants wore crownless bonnet shaped scalloped hats with net matching their gowns.

The only jewelry worn by the bridesmaids was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bride.

Mr. Steve Ferent performed the duties of best man. Ushers chosen were Messrs. James Petzer and Francis Pickard.

Mr. Leo McGee, organist, presented appropriate musical selections. The church was decorated with gladioli and candelabra.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Zueno, was attired in a black and pink flowered dress with black accessories. Mrs. Tiernan, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. A corsage of pink roses was worn by both mothers.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party was held in the Clover Leaf Restaurant following the Nuptial mass.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Wildwood, N. J. For traveling

Trinity Wins Over Emmanuel to Gain Berth in Finals

Trinity Reformed, making a last desperate bid to defend its Sunday School League title, overcame an early 2-0 deficit last night to defeat Emmanuel on an 8-3 count on Swenart Field and earn the right to meet St. James in the final playoffs.

League officials announced last night that the finals of the league playoffs would get underway tonight and would continue every night this week if the weather holds up.

Emmanuel got to Jack Kurts for a single run in the first inning and another in the second inning for a 2-0 lead. Trinity, however, struck back for four big markers in the fourth inning to take a lead it never relinquished.

Emmanuel added another count in the same inning to make it 4-3 only to have Trinity get to re-her Norm Sundstrom for four more tallies in the sixth inning.

The game was called after six full innings because of darkness.

Trinity collected seven base hits off the offerings of two Emmanuel pitchers, but were aided in the scoring by seven bases on balls, one off Guernsey Biehl and six off Sundstrom.

Kurts went the distance for Trinity and limited Emmanuel to five safeties over the six inning route. He gave up four free passes to first and registered four strike outs.

St. James and Trinity will meet in the first game of the final playoffs tonight on Swenart Field at 6 o'clock.

Trojans Work Hard Despite Hot Weather

Meysers Put Gridders Through Stiff Workouts; Hard Scrimmage Held

Despite the hot weather, Coach Heber T. Meyers put the candidates for the Pottstown High football team through two stiff workouts yesterday morning and afternoon.

The morning session was devoted to individual skills with Coach Bill McCabe giving his ends drills on pass receiving, pass defense and fighting blockers to get the ball carrier.

The linemen, under the watchful eye of Coach Morrell Griggs, were working on different defenses and blocking. Griggs stressed the work of a lineman fighting through two other linemen to get them used to the scrap and also had his boys hitting the dummy sacks.

Meysers was working the backfield candidates and had some of them practicing punting while others were working out with ball carrying.

The afternoon session was devoted to group exercises and more individual skills. Later in the afternoon, dummy scrimmage was held with the boys setting a few more plays. A scrimmage with the candidates wearing all equipment ended the day's work.

Flat As a Pancake!

When Pottstown High's Trojans take to the gridiron in a few weeks they hope to flatten their opponents just as Carl Harp is "flattened" here. This prophetic picture was made at Franklin Field yesterday when the Trojans started their second week of practice under Coach Heber T. Meyers. Pushing the roller over Harp is Don Weirich, who is showing the way the Trojans hope to roll over their nine opponents starting with Upper Merion Sept. 26.

Diecasters Topple Coffee Cup by 4-0 Before 800 Fans

Dieb's Diecasters pounded out five runs for three runs in the third inning last night and went on to hand the Coffee Cup a 4-0 setback behind the brilliant three-run inning of Dick Andrews before 800 fans on Franklin Field.

The victory assured the Diecasters of a berth in the Shaughnessy playoffs of the City Industrial League and they will flip a coin with the manager of the team that wins tonight's contest to see in which position they will enter the playoffs. The Coffee Cup will meet Flagg's tonight on Franklin Field at 6 o'clock to determine which team will reach the playoffs.

League officials announced that the semi-finals of the Shaughnessy playoffs will start tomorrow night, providing tonight's game doesn't end in a tie or is rained out.

The Diecasters, after two scoreless innings, got to Joe Cooke in the third inning for three runs and the ball game. A single, a sacrifice, two more singles followed by a triple and another one-gagger pushed across three runs when Coffee Cup couldn't get back.

Manager Al Luppacchino of the Coffee Cup announced he was playing the game under protest from the third on due to a dispute over umpire Bill Bernhart's decision of a play at second which resulted in a double play. The debating board, which met after the game, didn't uphold the protest and the game went to Dieb's.

An oddity happened in the Diecasters' half of the seventh inning which caused the majority of the Coffee Cup players to charge Umpire Dave Harrison.

Gerry Egolf, who was coming to bat for his fourth time with two hits already to his credit, sent a slow hopper toward third base which started to curve foul. Lou Vanderville, playing third base for the Coffee Cup, threw his glove at the ball to make sure it would stay on the foul side of the base line, and Umpire Hartman waved Egolf around the bases and awarded him with an automatic triple.

The fans as well as the Coffee Cup players started to yell at Hartman, but when it came around the same thing happened to Boston's Jake Jones in the major leagues a few weeks ago, the crowd quieted down and the game moved along.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 25 (AP)—Brooklyn's injury-riddled Dodgers had their subv come through in fine style again today and the league leaders whipped the Pittsburgh Pirates, 11-10, on the strength of a seven-run second inning for their fifth straight victory.

Filling in for the injured keystone combination of Ed Stanky and Pee Wee Reese, Eddie Miksis and Stan Rojek batted in six runs between them with the latter scoring three with a base cleaning triple in the big second. Rojek batted in another tally later and Miksis hit his second homer in two days.

The first four markers in the second came off ex-Dodger Kirby Higbe who left the game with two on base. Pete Reiser promptly greeted Rip Sewell with his fourth four-bagger of the year.

54 CANDIDATES START PRACTICE AT ROYERSFORD ONE VET AMONG 56 BOYERTOWN GRID CANDIDATES

Coach Bob McNelly, Royersford high school grid mentor, scanned a list of 54 football aspirants at the first call yesterday morning and scanned his head with an air of uncertainty, despite the large number of candidates.

Losing all out two good men would give any coach something over which to ponder and that's what the coach down, but not out, or maybe it was the extremely warm weather.

The response yesterday included only two vets from the past two years, John Fearheller, big backfielder, and Julius Chuck, lineman. McNelly explained he only had two men weighing over 160 pounds and had a gloomy outlook for the coming season.

However, 15 lads who had some previous experience were among the candidates, together with many others who snowed prospects.

McNelly was assisted in the work-out by the new shop teacher, John Hanbury Jr., who will be assistant coach this year, and Buck James and Bob Edleman, seniors and veterans from the past year, who will be benched this year because of age limitations.

Among the boys trying for first-string jobs were Bill Sell, John Sweeney, Oscar Drexel, Jack Fisher, Greg Tros, Barney Grater, Ralph Ochs, Sherwood Snell, Charles Fairbairner, Albino DiGuseppe, Jack Keiter, Ronald Cinquippio, Ace Miller, Hink Horner and Jack McCann.

Looking promising among the new candidates were Emidio Cinquippio, Mike Chuck, Bob Marsden, Herb Carl, Frank Kulp, Otto Gline, John Sload and Richard Kline.

The squad will practice every morning at 9 o'clock and every night at 6 o'clock.

Telford Man Hurt When Car Collides With Racing Autos

A Telford man was treated in the Jewish hospital, Philadelphia, for injuries he sustained when the automobile he was driving collided with one of two other vehicles racing wildly through a Philadelphia residential district.

William B. Hertsch, 37, Telford, was admitted to the hospital shortly after midnight yesterday with head and internal injuries, but was sufficiently recovered to be discharged last night.

Two young drivers were racing north about midnight, and swung over to the wrong side of the street while going through a red light.

They forced two cars onto the sidewalk, and the vehicle of one of the speedsters collided with that of Hertsch, who was driving west on a cross street.

Hertsch's car crashed into an iron picket fence at the top of an embankment and turned upside down. The car of the speeding driver followed and crashed into the overturned vehicle.

In a second weekend accident involving a Montgomery county driver, Aloysius Nace, 20, Conshohocken, was taken to the Memorial hospital for treatment after the car in which he was riding collided with another on Ridge pike in Limerick township.

Nace was a passenger in a car driven by another Conshohocken man going west on the pike, and had his arm hanging out of a window when a second vehicle, also going west, crashed into the first.

Nace suffered compound fractures of the right arm and elbow, but neither driver was injured. He was treated at Memorial hospital.

State police of the Collegeville sub-station investigated.

Malady Kills Ducks At Reading Museum

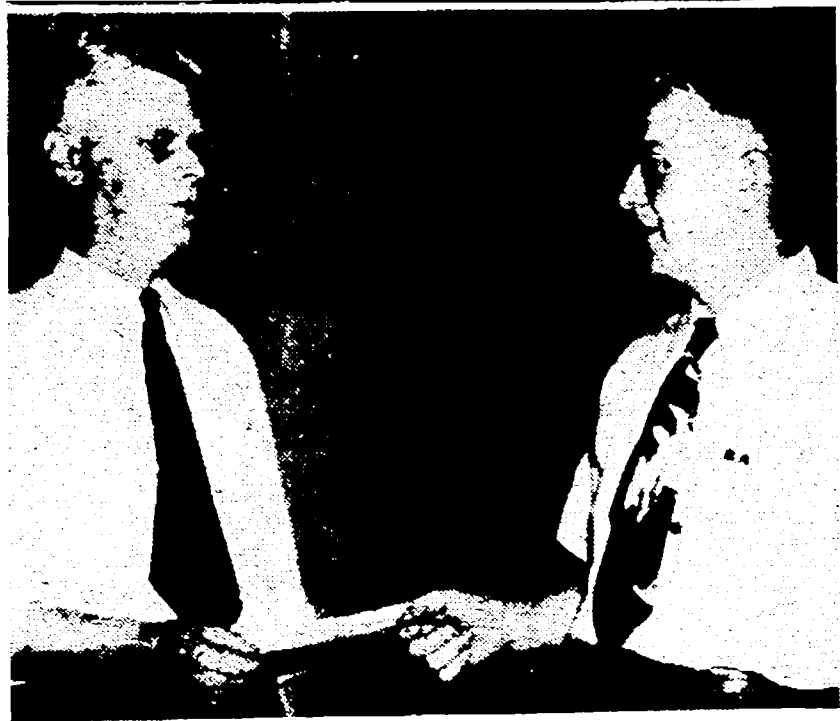

READING, Aug. 25 (AP) — The death of ten more waterfowl on the Reading museum's lake today brought renewal of a demand for a State investigation of Womissing creek pollution from Museum Curator Earl L. Poole.

Seven mallard ducks and three baby swans were the latest victims of a mysterious malady that has killed 53 waterfowl in recent weeks. The museum lake is formed by a dam in Womissing creek where, Poole said, thousands of fish have been killed by pollution.

The curator said recent appeals for an investigation by the department of forests and waters have gone unheeded.

In Harrisburg, the State sanitary water board, which is administering the Commonwealth's stream clean up program, said it has received no information on the reported pollution of the museum lake at Reading.

Boost for Municipal Airport

Leon C. MacMullen (left), co-chairman of the Pottstown Citizens' Airport committee, received a check for $1725 from A. K. Switzer, president of the Chamber of Commerce, at a special Chamber meeting held yesterday morning in the Security Trust building. The money brought the Chamber's contribution to the municipal airport to $2225, and opened, eight days ahead of the official starting date, a public drive for funds for the field.

Chamber Presents $1725 for Airport

Boosting the public campaign for funds for Pottstown's municipal airport, the Chamber of Commerce held a brief meeting yesterday morning to present Leon C. MacMullen, co-chairman of the Pottstown Citizens' Airport committee, with $1725.

"The amount completed the final payment of a total of $2225 from the Chamber of Commerce," MacMullen said. He explained that the other $500 was used to cover an option for the Stowe airport.

The public drive for funds opens officially next Tuesday, and MacMullen said that several commitments already have been made.

Yesterday's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, attended by 12 members, was called especially to start off the campaign, according to A. K. Switzer, president of the Chamber, and no other business was transacted.

Primary Candidates To Speak at Rally Of GOP Tonight

The three new GOP aspirants for county row offices, including E. Arnold Forrest, district attorney candidate, will appear in Moose hall tonight at 8:30 o'clock when the Pottstown Republican club stages a rally for the Sept. 9 primary.

Appearing with the other two new candidates, John LaFore Jr., for controller, and Samuel M. Wilson, for county treasurer, will be the incumbent judges, commissioners and other county officials.

Speakers from Pottstown will include Prothonotary Earl B. Beechle, 774 Queen street, treasurer of the county committee, and William J. Boden, 1846 Queen street, county party leader, who will give instructions to primary workers.

Lloyd H. Wood, State senator and county chairman, who will preside at the rally, said last night that he hopes for a heavy party vote in September despite the fact none of the candidates is opposed. He based his opinion on what he termed "the splendid manner in which the county government is being administered by the present board of commissioners."

The meeting will be opened formally by William H. Reifsnnyder, 1033 Queen street, club president. Other speakers will include Judge Harold G. Knight, Court of Common Pleas; Judge J. Burnett Holland, Orphans court; Fred C. Peters and Foster C. Hillegass, county commissioners; Louis V. Dorp, clerk of courts; W. J. Rushong, coroner; John E. Marshall, recorder of deeds; Mary H. Beerer, register of wills, and Samuel M. Glass, sheriff.

The so-called bloom on the calla lily actually is a leaf and not a flower at all.
